RE: Program for the Spokane Horn Trio Concert - Tuesday, Oct. 18, 8:00pm

VITAE:

Verne Windham,

Verne Windham holds a B.A. from the Eastman School of Music which he recieved in 1968. He is a native of Idaho. Before coming to Spokane to assume the principal horn position of the Spokane Symphony, Mr. Windham was active in New York City as a free-lance hornist. He was founder of the Valenka Woodwind Quintet in New York. In addition to his performing duties, he also teaches horn at Washington State University and Contemporary Music at Fort Wright College in Spokane. His principal teachers include Verne Reynolds and Robert Johnson.

Bruce Mathews

Bruce Mathews obtained his B.A. from University of Wisconsin in 1971 where he studied with the late John Barrows. He recieved a MM from the University of Idaho in 1973 where he also served on the faculty and performed as hornist with the Northwest Woodwind Quintet. In addition to his duties as third horn with the Spokane Symphony, he also serves as assistant to the Music Director.

Roger Logan

Roger Logan, second horn with the Spokane Symphony, obtained a B.M. from the University of Idaho in 1975. He has performed as hornist with the Faure Woodwind Quintet and currently teaches horn at Whitworth College in Spokane. Mr. Logan recently returned form Stratford, Ontario, where he studied horn with Barry Tuckwell, the renowned horn soloist.
